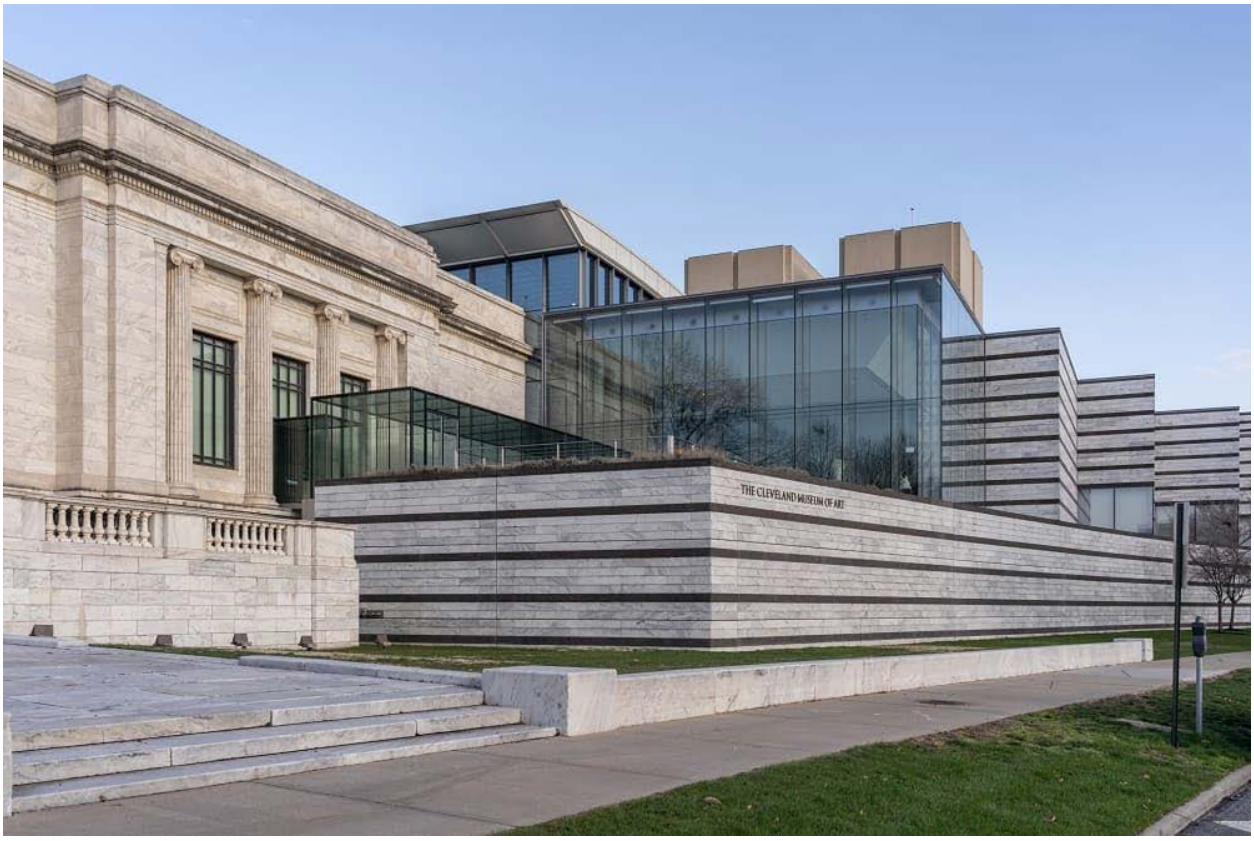
Enjoy a Night of Music, Movement and Memories at MIX: Moonstruck

Wednesday February 1, 2023



Contact the Museum's Media Relations Team:
(216) 707-2261
marketingandcommunications@clevelandart.org

Join the CMA on Friday, February 3 from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m.

Cleveland (February 1, 2023)—Celebrate the period between the lunar new year and Valentine's Day at MIX: Moonstruck, an exciting, upbeat night of art, music and dance. Groove to the soulful melodies, funk-inspired beats and captivating lyrics of the Syrian-American powerhouse band Bassel & The Supernaturals and high-energy dance sets spun by DJ SqrBiz. Food and drink selections curated by Bon Appétit will be available for purchase.

"We're excited for our first MIX of 2023," said Gabe Pollack, director of performing arts at the CMA. "Grab a special someone or group of friends and enjoy an unforgettable evening of food, fun and incredible art."

Tickets for this highly anticipated event are now available. Reserve your free member ticket today. Tickets are $12 for nonmembers when purchased in advance and $15 for nonmembers when purchased online on February 3. If available, nonmember tickets will be $20 at the door. Advance purchases are strongly recommended, as this event is expected to sell out quickly. Normal member and nonmember parking rates apply. For more information on events at the CMA, including monthly MIX events, visit cma.org/events.